

MINOR CITY MATTERS.

To-Day's Doings.
EXHIBITION BASE-BALL.—Chicago vs. All-America, League Park, 3:30 p. m.
LOYAL LEGION.—Indiana Commandery—Bates House, 6 p. m.
PARK THEATRE.—P. F. Baker in "The Emigrant," afternoon and evening.
EDEN MUSEE.—Curiosities, afternoon and evening.
BATTLE OF ATLANTA CYCLOPAMA.—Market street, between Illinois and Tennessee, day and evening.

Local News Notes.

George Sweetser, a deputy township assessor for the Second ward, fell yesterday, and broke his leg. His place has been filled by a substitute.
 John Stump, living at No. 215 South Alabama street, was attacked with cramps in front of 66 North Pennsylvania street last night. He was in a dangerous condition when he was removed to his home in Kregelo's ambulance.

Personal and Society.

Miss Clarissa Howe has gone to Chicago to visit friends for a fortnight.
 Mr. George F. Branham left last night for St. Louis for a few days absence.

Mrs. F. L. Adams has returned from Pittsburgh after a six-weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Joseph Gray, of Muncie, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lynn Stone, on North New Jersey street.

Miss Emma Burris, of Detroit, is the guest of Miss Mamie Chapin, on Broadway, and expects to remain several months.

Mr. Samuel Smith and Mr. E. A. Binford, of Crawfordsville, are spending the Easter season with Mrs. E. Wilson, at Woodruff Place.

Hilton U. Brown, city editor of the News, was called yesterday to Paris, Ill., by the death of his father-in-law, Captain A. A. Hannah.

Lew Replogle returned yesterday, from a short visit to Columbus, O., and other points, where he had been on business and pleasure.

Miss Rose Baldwin will arrive from Louisville to-night and remain in the city, the guest of Mrs. Bullard, on East Ohio street, until Monday morning.

The subjects for the Woman's Club, tomorrow, which will be open day, are to be, "What Has Fiction Done for Reform?" "The Immortal in Books." The variation is to be in Ephemerall Literature worth reading."

The opening of the Art Association exhibit, at Masonic Hall, is postponed to Tuesday night. The opening will be a full dress occasion, with an orchestra and refreshments. The hall will be handsomely decorated with fine hangings, palms and other objects. William Chase is to send three paintings again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon B. Thompson gave a dinner last evening, at their residence, No. 126 Vermont street, to Mr. O. L. Johnson, the associate editor of the Indianapolis News. The other guests were members of the editorial and reportorial staffs of that paper, together with their wives. They included Mr. and Mrs. John H. Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Will Fortune, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Paine, Ernest T. Bicknell and Mr. Schumacher. The dinner was elegantly served and the evening made most enjoyable by the coming together of Mr. Johnson and his co-workers prior to his departure for London.

MUSICAL.

The largest attendance and one of the best programmes of the year was the verdict for the Matinee Musicale, yesterday afternoon. The numbers given were:
 "Winter Hath Not a Blossom," Hauptmann
 Mrs. Jameson, Miss Herron and Mrs. Schumann
 "Serenade Dances," Dvorak
 Miss DeJenna, Mrs. Hunter, Miss Whitler, Miss Hunter.
 "The Lifted Veil," Barnaby
 "A Souvenir," W. B. Stone
 Miss Anna Bagg.

Spinning Song, Miss Bessie Beck, Spindler
 Hindoo Song, Mrs. Schumann
 Due Symphonique—Andante, Scherzo, Allegro—Mrs. Schumann
 Fierst, Mrs. and Miss Hunter.
 A Child's Song, Hutchinson
 Hungarian Rhapsody, Miss Maude Clay.
 Lullaby, Misses Whitler and Hunter.
 Allegretto from Symphony A Major, Beethoven
 Misses Whitler and Hunter.

A Day in the Woods, J. Haydn
 Owl and Cricket, Miss Bagg; Nightingale, Miss Dollen; Trumpets, Mrs. Schumann; Cuckoo, Miss McKenon; Locusts, Mrs. Jameson; Vocal, Miss Clay, Miss Herron, Miss Willard and Mrs. Scott; piano, Miss Whitler.

While all were good, especially to be mentioned is the song of Mr. Will B. Stone, a former resident of this city, now located in New York. Both theme and accompaniment are charming and full of harmony, and belong distinctly to the modern school. It is dedicated to sweethearts in general. Miss Clay has a voice of great sweetness, and sang her two songs with all the grace and expression such delightful compositions demand. The toy symphony is not new to the musical, as several have been given in the past five years, yet to many it will always be a novel entertainment. Its rendition was exceedingly well given. After the programme a business meeting was held. The next two afternoon meetings of the society will be held on May 8 and 17, and on Friday evening, May 10, an invitation concert will be given.

NEAST-LYONS.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
 MONTICELLO, Ill., April 17.—Oscar Neast, one of the leading teachers in the public schools of Platt county, and Miss Clara Lyons, daughter of Col. Wm. Lyons, were united in marriage this evening at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. Lyons, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. A fine wedding dinner was served.

CRAWFORDSBURG.

APRIL 17.—The marriage of Frank Boaz, of Peoria, Ill., and Miss Anna Burbridge was solemnized by Rev. G. W. Switzer, of the Methodist Church. Miss Burbridge has been the manager of the telephone exchange in this city for the past three years.

WASHINGTON'S INAUGURATION.

General Plan for the Centennial Observance in This City.

The Board of Trade, Grand Army of the Republic, City Council and Board of Aldermen were well represented at the meeting held in the Council chamber last night for the purpose of making arrangements for a celebration, on the 30th inst., of the centennial anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington as President of the United States. General Carnahan was chosen chairman, and Councilman Swain acted as secretary. It was the unanimous expression that Indianapolis, as the home of the centennial President, could not afford to be behind other cities of the country in the matter of a demonstration. Col. I. N. Walker said this city ought to have one of the finest demonstrations in the country. He suggested that there ought to be a parade of all the civic and military organizations, and then a patriotic meeting at night. It would be a good idea to have one of the organizations assemble at the Capitol and march up Washington street to Tomlinson Hall.

Councilman Thalmann thought the parade should be held in the afternoon. The President, by proclamation, had made the day a holiday, and business of all kinds would or should be suspended. There would be service at all the churches in the forenoon. As the people would have nothing to do in the afternoon, a parade, in which many thousands of people would join, could be arranged.

It was finally decided that an afternoon parade should be one of the features, and an executive committee of five gentlemen was appointed to make all the arrangements for the celebration, including the Tomlinson Hall meeting. The committee consists of Gen. James R. Carnahan, Col. Isaac N. Walker, Albert Gall, George Tanner and Isaac Thalmann. They were instructed to take full charge of the arrangements for the demonstration, and were given power to appoint all sub-committees that may be necessary.

Colonel Walker called the attention of the committee to the necessity of inviting the civic and military organizations. All the Catholic and German societies, he said, should also be the Doctor's hand, the happy pair entered the coach, crack went the whip, and they were gone. The groom was Henry E. Krug, and the bride Miss Mary A. Bryant. Dr. Jaines, although he had taken the wedding away from Mr. Mitchell, who was in the church, handed the fee to Mrs. Mitchell, and everything was satisfactory.

Inquiry About a Lady.
 A dispatch was received by United States Marshal Dunlap, yesterday, stating that his cousin, Miss Alice Dunlap, had left Washington, D. C., March 30, for Peru, this State, and had not been heard from since by her friends. The young lady was a skillful telegraph operator, but about a year ago her mind became affected from nervous troubles, and she was compelled to quit work. The dispatch says she was sick and unable to travel when she left Washington. She has friends in Cincinnati, and it is thought that she stopped off there, and is safe.

PEAR'S Soap is the most elegant toilet adjunct.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind—one or more, and sometimes all yield to its destructive influence.

The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the people be made aware of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all, based into and once completed and trustworthy.

The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent and an Improved Inhaler; price $1.
